IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI NORTHERN DIVISION

GLYN BOOTH PLAINTIFF

v. CIVIL ACTION NO. 3:14-CV-918-WHB-JCG

WAL-MART STORES, INC.

DEFENDANT

AMENDED COMPLAINT JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Glyn Booth, by and through counsel, Watson & Norris, PLLC, and files this action to recover damages for violations of his rights under Title VII and 42 U.S.C. §1981. In support of this cause, the Plaintiff would show unto the Court the following facts to-wit:

THE PARTIES

- 1. Plaintiff Glyn L. Booth is an adult African-American male who resides in Rankin County at 121 Latter Rayne Drive, Flowood, MS 39232.
- 2. Defendant, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. is a Delaware Corporation doing business in Mississippi and may be served with process through its Registered Agent, CT Corporation System, 645 Lakeland East Drive, Suite 101, Flowood, MS 39232.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 3. This Court has federal question jurisdiction and venue is proper in this court.
- 4. On February 10, 2014, Plaintiff filed a Charge of Race and Retaliation

  Discrimination with the EEOC. A true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A."

On August 28, 2014, the EEOC issued a Dismissal and Notice of Rights, a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit "B." Plaintiff timely filed this cause of action within 90 days of his receipt of the Dismissal and Notice of Rights.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

- 5. Plaintiff was hired by Defendant in May 2010 as a Market Manager at a pay rate of $158,000. He was the District Manager for the metro-Jackson and Vicksburg, Mississippi stores, which consisted of seven stores. Of these seven stores, three had black store managers and four had white store managers.
- 6. Plaintiff was targeted by his supervisor, Jerry Spencer, white male Divisional President, for "coachings," i.e., disciplinary write-ups.
- 7. In February 2013, Plaintiff was placed on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) after Jerry Spencer visited the Clinton, MS store. Plaintiff engaged in protected activity by lodging a complaint of race discrimination involving the PIP with the home office and the PIP was removed but not the write-up.
- 8. Within forty-five days of Plaintiff's complaint of racial discrimination to the home office, Jerry Spencer returned to Plaintiff's district and rated three of four stores; three were rated "below standard" and one was rated as "unacceptable."
- 9. Two of the "below standard" stores were managed by black male store managers and one by a white male. The "unacceptable' store was managed by a white male.
- 10. After giving out these store ratings, Mr. Spencer never returned to the "unacceptable" store but focused his attention instead on the two stores managed by Defendant's black store managers.

- 11. Spencer then retaliated against Plaintiff and had the Regional General Manager reinstate the PIP on Plaintiff without any justification.
- 12. Plaintiff was eventually given two more write-ups (coachings) by Defendant's white agents: (1) in June 2013 for length of lines in the stores and (2) in August 2013 for alleged poor job performance.
- 13. Plaintiff complained to Human Resources about his obvious unfair treatment and racially motivated harassment from his superiors in January 2013, but nothing was done by Defendant to alleviate the racially motivated harassment.
- 14. Jerry Spencer and Sammy Sappington, newly appointed white male, asked Plaintiff to resign in lieu of termination and allow someone else to fill his position, which he reluctantly did under duress on September 13, 2013, as he could no longer work under these racially hostile work conditions. Plaintiff was also told that he would remain active in the Wal-Mart system without pay in order to seek another position within the company and that Mr. Spencer and Mr. Sappington would supposedly assist him in finding another job with Wal-Mart.
- 15. Plaintiff timely filed a charge of discrimination against Defendant on February 10, 2014. In approximately April or May 2014, Plaintiff applied for the position of Health & Wellness Director with Defendant, a position for which his background experience made him highly qualified, but he was denied an interview in blatant and obvious retaliation for having filed the charge of discrimination against Defendant a couple of months earlier.

CAUSES OF ACTION

COUNT I - VIOLATION OF TITLE VII AND 42 U.S.C. 1981 - RACE DISCRIMINATION

16. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all averments set forth in paragraphs 1 through 15 above as if fully incorporated herein.

- 17. Defendant's actions were obviously retaliatory for Plaintiff engaging in protected activity by complaining to the home office and was racially motivated as management's agents ie, Sammy Sappington, white male, among others, targeted the stores which had black managers. For example, Defendant's agent and representative toured those stores more often and purposely tried to find issues and instances when management was slim, e.g., Friday nights when the stores had been shopped harder and on weekends.
- 18. Plaintiff Glyn Booth is aware of two white Market Managers whose stores were rated "below standard" but they were not given write-ups (coachings) nor placed on PIP's after Spencer's first visit to their stores.
- 19. The Defendant violated Title VII and 42 U.S.C. 1981 by allowing management to discriminate against Plaintiff based on his race, African-American.
- 20. The unlawful actions of the Defendant and its agents complained of above were intentional, malicious, and taken in reckless disregard of the statutory rights of Plaintiff.

COUNT II - VIOLATION OF TITLE VII AND 42 U.S.C. 1981 - RETALIATION

- 21. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates all averments set forth in paragraphs 1 through 20 above as if fully incorporated herein.
- 22. After Plaintiff engaged in protected activity and made his complaint regarding the racial discrimination of Defendant's white management, the Defendant retaliated against Plaintiff by constructively discharging him by making his working conditions so intolerable that no reasonable person would continue working under such conditions.

23. Plaintiff has been harmed as a result of this retaliation, and the Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for the same.

24. The acts of the Defendant constitute a willful intentional violation of Title VII and 42 U.S.C. § 1981 and entitle Plaintiff to recovery of damages, both compensatory and punitive in nature.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff respectfully prays that upon hearing of this matter by a jury, the Plaintiff be granted the following relief in an amount to be determined by the jury:

- 1. Back wages and reinstatement; or
- 2. Future wages in lieu of reinstatement;
- 3. Compensatory wages;
- 4. Punitive damages;
- 5. Attorney fees and costs; and
- 6. Such other relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

THIS the 5th day of December 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

GLYN BOOTH, PLAINTIFF

- 2. After visiting the Clinton store (#1710) in February 2013, Spencer gave me a coaching for the condition of the store. I was immediately placed on a Performance improvement Plan (PIP). I felt this and EEOC was unfair treatment and lodged a complaint with home office. After doing so, the PIP was removed,
- 3. Within forty-five days of calling home office, Spencer returned to the district and rated three of the four stores (three "below standard" and one as "unacceptable"). Of the ones rated "below standard", two were managed by Black male store managers and one by a white male. The one "unacceptable" store was managed by a white male. After receiving these ratings, at no point did Spencer return to the "unacceptable" store, however, he continued to focus his attention on the two stores managed by the Black store managers. He then had Sappington re-instate the PIP and I was eventually given two more coachings: (1) in June or July 2013 for the length of lines in the stores; and (2) Job
